Neil Goeckerman, of Grayling, was sentenced two to four years for possession of cocaine and Kevin Marculewicz, of Grayling, was sentenced to one year in the county jail and five years probation for attempted robbery.

Goeckerman was convicted in a non-jury trial and Marculewicz plead guilty. The men were sentenced in the 46th Judicial Circuit Court before Judge William Porter on Monday, December 7. Marculewicz was also fined $300 in costs.

$95,000 Fire at DNR Sign Shop Called Accidental

A fire Nov. 24 causing $95,000 damage to the DNR sign shop at Hartwick Pines has been ruled accidental by a Gaylor State Police Fire Marshal. According to a Bay City Times article, the fire marshal said the fire probably started in a wastebasket next to a wood burning stove. The fire marshal said there was no evidence of who placed the wastebasket too close to the fire but there was no indication the fire was set. He said the contents in the wastebasket could have been ignited by the stove or discarded cigarettes or matches.

The building was valued at $65,000 and woodworking tools and other contents of the building were valued at $25,000. DNR officials say no decision has been made yet whether to rebuild. According to the article, state fire losses exceeding $50,000 must be reviewed by the state legislature before appropriating funds to rebuild.

Weyerhaeuser Receives Same Fire Protection

The Beaver Creek Township Board decided Monday night Weyerhaeuser will receive the same fire protection as the rest of the township. Lyon Township of Roscommon County has given the township fire coverage for years but there was speculation that Weyerhaeuser wanted Grayling Township and City Fire Department to service its new $80 million plant. Beaver Creek decided it did not want to pay extra money for Grayling to service Weyerhaeuser and said Lyon Township will continue to provide fire coverage.

Silent Auction Earns $200

The Crawford County Arts Council collected $200 from a silent auction held at the Grayling Mini-Mall last Saturday. Items for the auction were donated by craftsmen present at the recent Christmas Arts & Crafts Bazaar.

Santa Claus, who was unable to attend last weekend's event, will be present at the Mini-Mall this Saturday from 10-4 to talk to the kids and have pictures taken. Baked goods will be sold this Saturday and proceeds from the pictures and baked goods will go toward the Arts Council fund to support high school plays, band, and other programs.

Also appearing at the Mini-Mall this Saturday, December 19, will be dancers from Louise's Dance Studio. They will be performing from 10-3.

Nuisance Ordinances Remain Unchanged

Despite three months of debate about two Beaver Creek Township nuisance ordinances, the two codes designed to clean up the township will remain unchanged.

The two ordinances - aimed at getting rid of junk and other health hazards on private property - became law in September. More than 100 persons attended October and November township board meetings to discuss the ordinances. A Saturday meeting November 14 between members of the two groups arguing about the ordinances failed to bring up any proposed amendments to the laws. At their December meeting, the township board let the audience briefly discuss the ordinances and then moved on to new business.

Deadline Draws Near For Miss Grayling Applications

Young women in the Grayling area between the ages of 17 and 21 and a resident of Crawford County have until Wednesday, December 23rd to turn in their applications for the Miss Grayling pageant.

Applications are still available at the Grayling High School, the Chamber of Commerce, WQON, and Cornell Real Estate.

All applications should be turned in either to the counseling office at the Grayling High School or to Mrs. Norma Naour at Cornell Real Estate.

Coupon Location Switched

Package and coupon collection locations for the C.H.I.L.D. (Committee Hoping for Interim Library Dollars) has been switched. Instead of dropping off packages and coupons at Glen's Market and A & P, persons can drop them off at the Grayling High School and Elementary offices. Pick-up is also available by calling Debbie Hoyt at 348-2479. Practically any food or household product package will bring in money for the school libraries.

New Music Class at Kirtland

Jazz History and Appreciation will trace the beginnings of Jazz in the late 1800's, thru the Blues, Dixieland, the swing era of the big bands, and bebop, right up to the modern scene. Highlighted will be the giants of Jazz such as Louis "Satchmo" Armstrong, Benny Goodman, Duke Ellington, Count Basie, Charlie Parker, John Coltrane, and Miles Davis.

Grayling 2nd at Ludington

Three Grayling wrestlers, Tim Ferrigan, Dan Meldrum, and Jeff Knight, took first place at a ten-team Christmas Tournament in Ludington to help the Vikings finish second.

Grayling led the tournament going into the last two matches but wound up falling short of Benzie Central 137½ to 148. Grayling sent seven wrestlers to the finals - the most of any team - however, forfeiting at three weight positions caused Grayling to come up short in total team points.

Taking second place at the tournament last Saturday was Steve Sauve, Tim Jensen, Jim Piper, and John Solomonson.

Millage Increase Rejected 2012-783

By Jon Thompson

Crawford AuSable School District voters emphatically turned down a 3.75 millage increase request last Thursday by a 2012 to 783 vote.

Two hundred and fifty more voters turned out for the special December election than the last school election in August.

The proposal was rejected by a two-to-one margin in the Grayling precinct, seven-to-one in the Frederic precinct, and eight-to-one in Lovells.

The totals were No-1,486 and Yes-707 in Grayling, No-

368 and Yes-56 in Frederic, and No-158 and Yes-20 in Lovells.

Superintendent William Diedrich said school officials were obviously disappointed but "the overwhelming vote tells us people have no additional money to give to the schools. We'll operate with what's given to us and try to do the best job we can."

Clem Sajdak, president of the Concerned Citizens of Crawford County, called the millage defeat bittersweet because of the money the school district spent on the election could have been spent on books for students.

Sajdak also said his group, which opposed the millage request - has just begun its work.

"Our aim is not to belittle the administration or teachers but to channel what money the schools have into the right direction."

With the millage election over, he said his group has another goal to fight for proper representation on the school board. His group would like to see more representatives on the board from Beaver Creek, Frederic, Lovells, Maple Forest, and outlying areas of Grayling. Currently these areas have

Jaws of Life Used for Cheboygan Man

Grayling Township and City firefighters used Jaws of Life equipment early Saturday morning to free a Cheboygan man from his rolled over car on I-75.

The man, Ormie McClary, was taken to Grayling Mercy Hospital by the Crawford County Ambulance Corps.

His vehicle was traveling north on I-75 when it apparently went off the east side of the road. The driver allegedly grabbed the steering wheel and the car then slid over to the west side of the roadway, flipping twice. The man was pinned in the cab after the vehicle landed upside down.

A faulty wood stove chimney caused a fire damaging the ceiling and rafters at the Greg and Jackie Cass residence on Old 27 north of Grayling. The fire started around 9 a.m. last Wednesday and the Grayling fire department responded to the call.

A Crawford County Public Transit vehicle struck a deer on North Down River Road last Thursday about 6 p.m. A Harbor Springs passenger was taken to Mercy Hospital by the Dial-A-Ride bus for treatment of minor injuries.

Four larcenies, three breaking and enterings, three car-deer accidents, three ambulance calls, and five property damage accidents were reported to the sheriff's dept. last week. A total of 63 complaints - down considerably from the 100-plus recorded during opening week of the hunting season last month - were handled last week.

Bishop Rose Second Bishop of Gaylord

A festive crowd of people overflowed the Cathedral of St. Mary in Gaylord Sunday to witness the pagentry of the Ordination/Installation of the Rev. Robert John Rose as the Second Bishop of the Diocese of Gaylord.

Principal consecrator was Archbishop Edmund C. Szoka of Detroit with co-consecrators Bishop Joseph M. Breitenbeck of Grand Rapids, and Bishop Joseph C. McKinney, Auxiliary Bishop of Grand Rapids.

Father David Genuend, Administrator of the Diocese, presented the Bishop-Elect and requested his ordination. Archbishop Szoka called for the reading of the apostolic letter by the Vicar General, Father Dennis Stillwell.

A rousing musical fanfare and standing ovation in affirmation of the appointment of the Bishop-elect followed the reading.

The Cathedral was hushed as the Bishops, beginning with the consecrators, in silence, laid their hands on Bishop-Elect Rose as a gesture designating a conferral of authority and of blessing.

Taking part in this ceremony along with Archbishop Szoka, Bishops Breitenbeck and McKinney were John Cardinal Dearden, Kenneth E. Untener, Bishop of Saginaw; Joseph L. Inesch, Bishop of Joliet-in-Illinois; Benedict C. Franzetta, Aux. Bishop of Youngstown; Daniel E. Pilarczyk, Aux. Bishop of Cincinnati; James R. Hoffman, Aux. Bishop of Toledo; George Fulcher, Aux. Bishop of Columbus; Mark Schmitt, Bishop of Marquette; James A. Hickey, Archbishop of Washington, D.C.; Walter J. Schoenherr, Aux. Bishop of Detroit; Arthur H. Krawczak, Aux. Bishop of Detroit; Kenneth J. Povish, Bishop of Lansing; and Paul V. Donovan, Bishop of Kalamazoo.

In the concluding rite, while the choir and everyone present sang a hymn of thanksgiving and blessing, Bishop Rose was accompanied through the Cathedral by two of the consecrating bishops as he blessed the congregation.

Before the final blessing and end of ceremonies, Bishop Rose thanked the people for coming and shared some of his thoughts with them. He said if he were asked to sum up his feelings on the afternoon in one word it would be, "overwhelmed."

TRIO SAVES LIFE—While attending a law enforcement hearing in Gaylord, two Crawford County Sheriff's deputies, Art Clough and Bill Heemer, and a Grayling City Police Officer, Bob Butzin, worked together to save the life of a heart attack victim at the Alpine Mini-Mall. Responding to shouts of heart attack, the three officers found Ernest Hoffman, of Vanderbilt, slumped on a floor and immediately began CPR techniques. Hoffman, now recovering from the heart attack thanked the officers and said "Your immediate response and fast diagnosis along with your professional training has given me a second chance at life few people obtain."

The Crawford County Board of Commissioners and the Sheriff's Dept. presented the men with citations praising their action. Sheriff Joe White commended the officers for being trained in life-saving techniques as well as law enforcement. City Police Chief Pete Stephan applauded their quick action and said everyone is lucky the three modest officers are not as hesitant to help someone as they are to receive credit for their deeds.

C.H.I.L.D. To Open School Libraries

After netting $1,300 from a swiss steak dinner, C.H.I.L.D. (Committee Hoping for Interim Library Dollars) has raised enough money to reopen school library doors.

The Crawford AuSable School Board approved an alternate funding program for the libraries Monday night and their doors will open after the Christmas break.

Approximately $3,300 will be required to operate the libraries from the beginning of the new year until June. C.H.I.L.D. has raised about $2,200 - enough to operate the libraries about three months and they hope to raise more funds to keep the libraries open the rest of the year.

The school libraries were closed due to budget cuts at the beginning of the school year. They were opened briefly in October staffed with laid-off teachers.

In other school board news, the State Board of Education has upheld a decision not to allow a group of Hart Lake property owners to transfer their land from the Crawford AuSable School District to the Gaylord Community School District. The state board is the final appeal step. The tax revenues from the area amount to about $25,000 a year for C-A schools.

The board also approved alternative funding for five sport programs, high school basketball, skiing, wrestling, volleyball, and middle school basketball. The Grayling Youth Booster Club will be funding the programs.

Christmas is presented in this musical as more than just a time to commemorate our Lord's birth. It shows us how to reaffirm His presence in our lives today. Come, celebrate with us the wonders of His birth, life, death and resurrection.

Vikings Stomp Petoskey 65-42

With senior guard Jamie Radebaugh taking over the reins offensively and the Vikings big men playing good defense, Grayling defeated Petoskey 65-42 last Tuesday, Dec. 8.

In their home opener, Grayling took command of the game early and raced to their first conference victory. High-scoring senior guard Brad Trenary ran into early foul trouble but Radebaugh stepped to take control. He scored 20 points - 9-14 from the field and 2 free throws - to lead Grayling scorers.

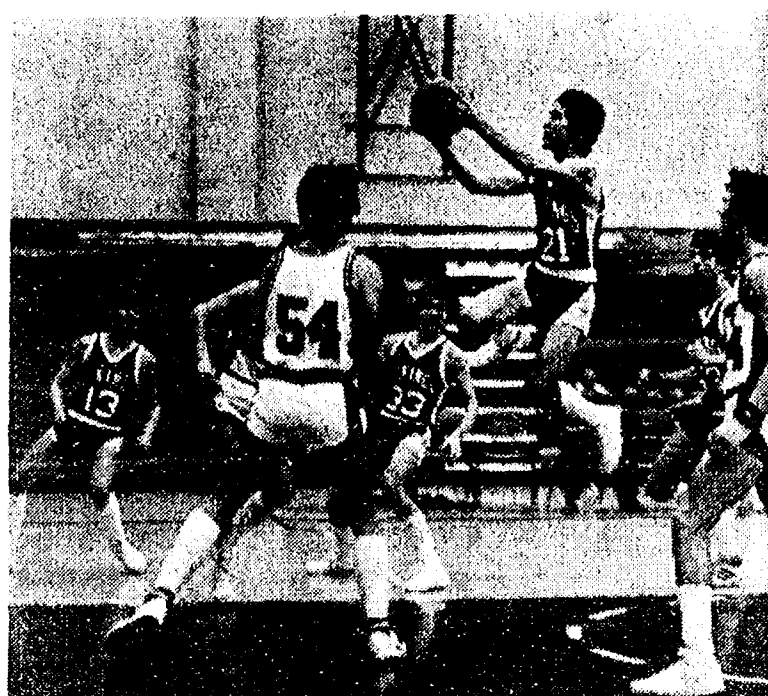

Trenary, although sitting out some of the action, scored 13. Ted Methner came off the bench to contribute 12 points and 12 rebounds. Tracy Fagan scored 12 points also and pulled down 9 rebounds. Monte D'Amour scored 6 points, Paul Hamlin added 2, and Wayne Ross had 10 rebounds.

Head coach Butch Hayes said he was pleased with the way Radebaugh took charge on the floor and was happy with Methner's performance.

With four players in double figures, Grayling had the balanced scoring Hayes says the team needs to win. The Grayling defense shut down Petoskey well limiting them to 46 shots.

In J.V. action against Petoskey, Grayling scored a come-from-behind 65-63. Greg Burns led the scoring with 22 points. Barclay Cross contributed 16 points and 14 rebounds.

Boyne City Downs Grayling 84-78

By Jon Thompson

The free throw line again did in the Grayling Vikings. Last Friday, Boyne City slipped by Grayling 84-78 as they shot an outstanding 34-41 for the line compared to 6-14 for the Vikings.

In the Vikings other loss this year, Benzie Central also went to the line twice as often as Grayling.

"With the very aggressive defense we play we're going to put the other team at the line a lot," head coach Butch Hayes. "But we've got to cut down on the dumb fouls. Late in the game Friday night we had a lot of fouls committed out of frustration."

Grayling never trailed by more than 6 points in the game and had a chance to cut the Boyne City to two points with a minute left but a shot rolled around the rim and fell out.

Grayling was ahead at halftime 40-39 after falling behind 24-20 at the end of the first stanza. Boyne City came out hot in the third quarter and opened up a six-point lead.

"We had a good offensive game," Hayes said. "We ran well and outscored them 70 points to 48 points from the field."

Besides the free throw line, he said Grayling also hurt itself with 24 turnovers. The shorter Boyne City squad also grabbed an equal number of rebounds and came up with several big ones in the second half.

Brad Trenary led Grayling with 18 points. Jim Schrader scored 15 points and picked off 10 rebounds. Ted Methner came off the bench and again had a high scoring night putting 16 points.

Tracy Fagan pulled down 13 rebounds and added 8 points. Jamie Radebaugh scored in double figures for the third time this season with 11 points. Monte D'Amour had 8 points and Wayne Ross had 2.

Against Boyne City, the J.V.s upped their conference record to 2-0 with a 67-50 win. Everyone played in the contest and Barclay Cross led scoring with 22 points. Jim Stewart hit for 16 points and Burns added 9. Hickey led the team with assists and Nicholas and Cross were team leaders on defense.

From Our Corner ...

Ho, Ho, Ho, and a Merry Christmas to all of our readers...now if the ol fella could get in the spirit of Christmas everything would be fine in our household...must be getting a bit older every year... Sunday our bride was cooking up a storm of cookies, so that might get me to thinking of good Old St. Nick...

It's two down and one to go for the ol fella in the party strain of Christmas cheer...

Last Friday evening we were invited to the annual Multi-List Association Christmas party and Awards Presentation at Chief Shoppenagons Hotel. There was a lot of good food and plenty of cheer, and we managed to have our share. There was a door prize drawing, and you guessed it...we held the lucky ticket, 711, after this they probably won't invite ol lucky me to their next year's party...

Saturday evening, friend R.J. Hannan invited us to his home on the lake for more good food and cheer...didn't know R.J. was such a good cook until we found out that his neighbor, Rose Duley did just about all the gourmet treats...

About this time of year we also have on our mind the travels of R.J., every year he has to head for the jungle and it seems like every year he under goes a new experience, one of these year's he's going to get lost and we won't have anyone to listen to with a Flatbush broag...he claims it's Straten Island...

We were talking Saturday evening and I asked him how he planned on going out east this year...his answer, I really don't know yet, I may take the bus or maybe even drive, but then there is a chance of flying out...see what I mean about R.J. he has all the answers right at the tip of his tongue, it's the decisions that bother us...anyway R.J. we're sure you'll have a fine time in the jungle...and Merry Christmas to you and your folks...

From the Las Vegas Sun...You know you're in trouble when...you find a note on the table instead of supper...

We watched with amazement Sunday afternoon at six kids, ages must have ranged from about 8 to 12 on the pond just below the railroad bridge playing and actually trying to break through the ice...at their age they should know better, but then if something happens to one or all they would blame someone for not having a fence around it...which is silly, but we have heard of more asinine things happening...we don't believe the ice is that thick yet...

Just to much Christmas work to do, so we're going to close our corner for tonight...good night T.J., Stef and Amber, and to all have a nice weekend, St. Nick is approaching faster than we think...

The Bible Speaks

From Calvary Baptist Church

X-MAS

Have you ever wondered why there is such an effort to take Christ out of Christmas? Ask many children what important person comes into their minds when you say Christmas, and they would answer Santa Claus. Ask many children about Easter and they will tell you about colored eggs and Easter Bunnies. People have their minds on the Easter parade rather than the resurrection. People have their minds on gifts, greetings, decorations and parties. They are self-centered rather than Christ-centered.

Joseph and Mary took Jesus to the passover in Jerusalem when he was 12 years of age, and upon returning home, suddenly realized they had lost Jesus in the crowd. "But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. And when they found him not, they turned back again to Jerusalem, seeking him." Luke 2:44, 45. When we become so centered in commercialism, music, decorations, and parties, that we fail to worship Christ, then we too have lost Him in the crowd.

Christmas in the United States is one big birthday party. Drive from city to city and look at the lights and beautiful decorations. Listen to the old Christmas carols. Drive down the streets of any city and see the homes all decorated in Christmas spirit. How would you like to have the nation decorated in Christmas spirit. How would you like to have the nation celebrate your birthday? Imagine a day named after you. Everyone planning for days and weeks to be ready for your day. And now the day arrives and everyone ignores you. You try to talk to them, but they won't listen. They don't even try to talk to you. They just ignore you. My friend, when you celebrate Christmas do you talk to Christ in prayer? Do you let Him talk to you by reading His Word? May we not have a Christmas where Christ is missing at His own Birthday celebration.

The message of Christmas has not changed: "For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord." Luke 2:11. Christ came into this world to be our saviour. Is He your saviour today??? (adv.)

 Moose News

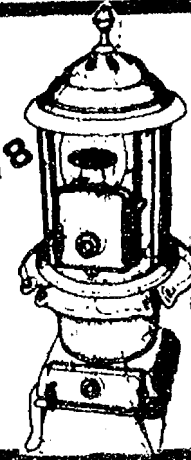

We would like to wish all of our members and their families the very best over this holiday season.

We are having our annual childrens Christmas party this year on Saturday, December 19, at the Moose Lodge from 12:00 noon to 4:00 p.m. This party is open to ALL children in the area. Santa will be there and will have gifts for the kids. Many of our local merchants have donated to the party, so it should be very nice. Hope to see as many as possible. Once again Happy Holidays to all.

Faternally Yours,
 Jack E. Johnston, Sec'y.

Thanksgiving Party

Mrs. McEvers' fourth grade had a Thanksgiving party on November 24, 1981. They had cornbread and pumpkin pie to eat. They had a trading post where they walked around and traded one thing for another. Half of their room were Indians, the other half were Pilgrims. Level ten read a story about Thanksgiving from their book. All of the fourth grade would have had it together, but we don't have as much time as we did last year. Here's a picture of their party. Written by Janet Petrosky, fifth grade.

Jim Piper, John Solomonson, and Jeff Knight won by decision, and Tim Moore won by forfeit. Grayling scored 47 team points to Reed City's 12. ## Bits O'Talk

By Fay Bovee

Preston and Marjorie Slack send their regards to their friends here in Grayling. Their address is: 13902 Yorba, 2-C, Tustin, Cal 92680 and I am sure they would enjoy hearing from some of their former friends.

One of the new Weyerhaeuser families that has moved to the Grayling area to make their permanent home are Tony and Georgia Moore and son, Clark, of Tacoma, Washington. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Clem, formerly of Crawfordville, Oregon, have also come to make this their home.

There are many other families, too - we'll have those later. We'd like to print your Christmas guests and travels if you'll give us a call - evenings, please.

Mr. and Mrs. Budrowich vacationed in California, visiting such cities as San Pedro, Long Beach, LaGuma, Hiquel, Hawthorn, Riverside, Anaheim, Hemet and Palm Spring Desert.

Chuck and Karen Huber are the proud parents of a baby boy, Travis Charles, born November 23, 1981, at Otsego Memorial Hospital. The little lad weighed 7 lbs. 11 ozs. Grandparents are Jack and Yvonne Bind-schatel, Monte Malonen, Dick and Gloria Huber and Larry and Dolores Balch of East Tawas.

Millage

no representatives on the board.

Sajdak also denied reports of a recall campaign - started in a story by the Bay City Times.

"All along after the problems started with Frederic Elementary closing, our attorneys, the Attorney General, the State Board of Education, and different politicians have told us a recall is one of our options," Sajdak said. "We brought the recall option up at a meeting and our members turned it down. It is not one of our priorities. We aim to replace some school board members but we'll do it in the June elections through the vote of the people."

Randy Thompson, chairman of the New Alliance which supported the millage proposal, was disappointed in the results.

"It's unfortunate so many people feel the schools are fine the way they are."

He said the Alliance stands by the facts it presented during the election campaign and the group will continue to try to present information to the general public about the school system.

Chris Clover's Corner

By Sue Louchart

Hi! I'm Chris Clover here with news from the Crawford County 4-H Clubs.

The Physical Fitness Club at the Grayling Elementary School on Fridays has room for more members. This club is for 8 to 12 year old boys and girls who like to play games and learn how to take good care of their bodies. They meet for two hours after school.

The Kitchen Magicians were busy making gingerbread houses using graham crackers with royal icing. They still have Xmas paper for sale at $2 a pkg. Contact any member or Mrs. Nevins if you don't have yours yet. The money earned from the paper helps pay for their supplies for cooking. A Christmas Party is in the planning for next week. Sounds like fun!

Last Saturday was a happy and a sad day for the Leader Dog Club as they took the dogs down to Rochester for their final training to be placed with a blind person. They have raised and trained to be placed with a blind person. They have raised and trained the puppies for one year. All the dogs passed the preliminary tests that day.

Tuesday the new puppies arrived in town for the members who wanted to raise one for another year. Golden retrievers and chocolate labs. from Mr. Juday in Boyne City were passed out. The girls in the Personal Grooming Club had a bake sale out at the Arts and Crafts Bazaar at the Mini-Mall. The money will help the girls go on shopping trips and other field trips related to good grooming.

Workshops coming up in the month of January at Ketchikan Center are the following: January 8, 9, 10 4-H Horse Show Judging and Management Conference January 15, 16, 17 4-H Leadership Development Workshop, January 22, 23, 24, 30 & 31 4-H Energy Workshop.

If you are interested in attending any of these workshops contact the Extension Office.

If anyone would like to join one or more of the many clubs or start a new one call the 4-H Office at 348-2841 and let Ann know. See you next week with more news about the clubs and what's new in 4-H. See you!

Workplace Injuries May Increase Due to Economy

Warren M. Hoyt, Executive Director, MPA

Attitudes of the federal administration and a stagnating state economy could slow down any progress in reducing worker injuries and death, a report by the Legislative Office of the Science Advisor concludes.

The report noted, however, that lessening of progress in Michigan may be less severe than nationally, due partially to the stronger influence of organized labor in the state.

The report was prepared at the request of the Joint Committee on Administrative Rules, which has studied a number of rules regarding worker safety and health, such as a safe level for exposure to curen - a carcinogenic chemical.

It reviews both national and state legislation, standards and enforcement.

Since the enactment of the national occupational safety and health act there has been a significant decline in injuries and illness, the report found.

The fatality rate has dropped nationally by between 15-20 percent, though the report's author, Michael Kamrin cautioned that the act alone was not responsible for the decline.

Deaths had started to decline in the 1960's, he said.

However, total injuries declined by about 15 percent, in contrast to the 1960's, when the number increased.

Michigan had lower incidents of both injuries and illness in all cited industries, with the fourth lowest rate for incidents in the nation in 1978.

The report suggested that Michigan's lower rate of injury and illness may be partially explained by different enforcement procedures. State inspectors make far more general inspections of work places than complaint-based inspections.

Greater improvements in safety can be made by further research into work-related incidents, especially as it is more difficult to trace the cause of disease than it is an injury, according to the report.

Also, greater worker education and training is needed, with special emphasis on new workers as a larger number of injuries occur to new workers.

The report also recommended that industries do a better job of labeling hazardous work areas, and that improvements in safety equipment be made.

The economy may hurt improvements in safety as businesses may be disinclined to spend the funds to comply with safety rules the report adds, saying "the combination of decreased federal regulatory pressure and increased local economic pressure may make some employees less apt to act promptly in improving the safety and health characteristics of Michigan work places."

$10 Million Promotion for Mich.

Governor William G. Milliken has unveiled a $10 million "Say Yes to Michigan" promotional campaign, that along with some legislative action to improve the state's business climate, will be used to promote Michigan as a place to locate new business.

Officials said an advertising campaign will be the basis for promotional efforts for tourism, business advertisements and agricultural products.

It will be kicked off during the Super Bowl weekend in late January when the eyes of the nation will be focused on Pontiac for the National Football League's championship game.

It is hoped that private companies will join with the state in cooperative promotion efforts using the "Say Yes" theme.

The promotion is meant to counter negative attitudes and feelings about Michigan, traced in part to the economic malaise which affects not just Michigan, but the region as well.

Meanwhile, the state Legislature is working toward adoption of portions of the governor's economic development package - improvements in the state's workers and unemployment compensation programs - to make Michigan a better place in which to do business.

To Alaska ...and Back

By Ken Hemming
"The Beauty and the Beast"

Lovers of natural beauty won't be disappointed with Alaska, with its five thousand glaciers, countless lakes and forests, wildflowers that'll dazzle one's eyeballs out of their sockets, and, of course, the wildlife. Our national symbol, the eagle, is prevalent there, and congregations of eagles can be seen in various parts of Southeast Alaska, the largest group migrating annually just north of Haines.

Arriving during the peak of the salmon season, I saw streams filled to darkness with spawning fish. Buses going to the Mendenhall Valley from Juneau often stop near streams along their route so passengers can view the life-ending and life-beginning rituals of the salmon. Even the town of Whitehorse, in the Yukon, closes down for two weeks in mid-August, as seemingly half the residents travel a hundred miles south to fish the steel and coho running at Haines, Alaska.

The beauty of Alaska extends throughout its vastness, but it isn't captured without risk. Travel into the interior, except for a few roads, requires small aircraft. Consequently, bush planes are a popular, and necessary, mode of transportation. Whereas in the lower forty-eight we commonly read about auto accidents, regular reading of the Anchorage newspaper reveals that bush plane accidents are fairly common in Alaska. Besides the large number of bush planes, problems encountered flying in the bush are magnified, due to the sparse population and lack of emergency fields.

A sense of rugged history pervades Alaska, revealing the strength of human character against an often hostile environment. Scagway, near Haines, still tells of pioneer struggles into the Yukon through forest service slides, and local bars reflect the era of the gold rush, where more fortunes were made and lost in town than along the Klondike Trail. Nearby is the Chilkoot, a favorite trail of backpackers, who trek up and down boulder-strewn mountains for thirty miles, then return by train, a luxury of recent times. For gold rushers, the Chilkoot was a forested demon that took several months to complete, and many died from exposure to the harsh elements.

Everyone is curious about bears, so here's my bear report: Although I saw a few brown bears moving leisurely along the highway, stopping here and there to munch on berries, the Alaskan brown bear, or grizzly, is a bit more illusive than its southern cousins. An old gent in Wrangell told me that a grizzly in Alaska will spook and run if confronted unexpectedly, but the same bear will circle wide and come up behind the person for an attack. Basic caution is usually enough to insure safety, which includes making noise to let any furry creatures nearby know you're there. I did plenty of loud singing and whistling as I hiked and jogged through the woods. Having encountered no surprising meetings with angry beasts, I was able to thoroughly enjoy a wealth of beauty in the Alaskan outdoors.

The Marva Collins Story: What Can We Learn?

By Bill Morford, Crawford-AuSable School Board

The story of Chicago school teacher Marva Collins was aired recently on the CBS television network.
As I viewed the film, I wondered what comparisons would be drawn between her experience and our schools.

For those who missed the show, Marva Collins was a teacher in the Chicago Public Schools. After fourteen years in the system, she chose to open her own school in a poor black neighborhood in the city. That school has become nationally known for its success in teaching youngsters who neither public nor private schools had been able to reach.

Mrs. Collins is a gifted teacher. What can we learn from her?

First, Marva Collins put great confidence in herself and her ability to teach children. She saw in every student a great capacity for learning, and she knew she could develop it.

I'd like to know that every teacher in our schools believes in his or her own ability to teach every one of our children. Every professional needs confidence to assertively approach the challenges of their occupation. Our difficult and struggling students are the challenges of the teaching profession.

Marva Collins not only trusts her own abilities, she believes with equal fervor that every child can learn.
As the movie portrayed, she tells her students that the words "I can't" are a lie.

Research shows a teacher's belief in the students' ability to learn greatly influences student performance. In one project, teachers were told that a class of slow learners were in fact a class of bright students. A class of bright students were presented as a remedial group.

The result was that the "real" slow learners improved their performance under a teacher who expected good results from them.
The bright students performed less well under a teacher whose expectations of them were low.
A Michigan State University study of improving schools found that the staffs of improving schools tended to believe that all of their students could meet the basic objectives of the school. They also continued to raise their levels of expectation as the students progressed.

Wilbur Brookover, an education professor at MSU, is quoted in Newsweek as saying that "the belief that some kids can't learn is firmly established in American education." "That has to change," he says, "in order to have more effective schools."

To what extent does this community, as well as our teachers, believe that every child can learn? The example of Marva Collins would indicate that our answer will go a long way toward determining the quality of our schools.

While the Marva Collins Story emphasized the teacher's importance, there are several sources that point out the significance of the building principal as well.

Ronald Edmonds of the Harvard Graduate School identified "principals who are active leaders" as the first determinant of an effective school.

MSU research found that "in improving schools, the principal is more likely to be an instructional leader, is more likely to be assertive in his/her instructional role, is more of a disciplinarian, and perhaps most of all, assumes responsibility for the evaluation of the achievement of basic objectives."

Obviously, the cooperation of teachers and administrators is a must in a good school system. But our schools are not isolated from the community they serve. I think the Marva Collins Story has some implications for the community outside the school, too.

In the last part of this article, I'll describe the implications I see for our district in the story of Marva Collins.

Doodles From The Tall Timber

Wendell L. Hoover
Park Interpreter

Ten years ago a C.M.U. professor wanted to bring a group of students to the Pines for a guided hike, but his was a night class. To make a long story shorter, we decided to take them out at night. Since the subject matter dealt with logging history, I met them dressed as an old-time shantyboy and we lit the way with two kerosene lanterns. It was such a success that each year since I have taken many such groups out. Some nights were warm, others rainy; one January night was cold, minus ten degrees cold. Others have been "black as sin" and others so moonlit that the lanterns were not really necessary. The groups have varied in their attitudes and responses to the Tall Timber and the darkness. Recently, I conducted a guided hike for a group of all ages from first graders to adults.

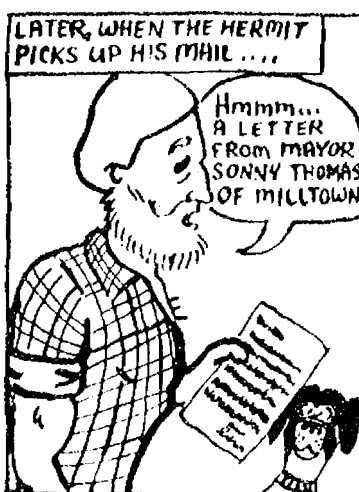

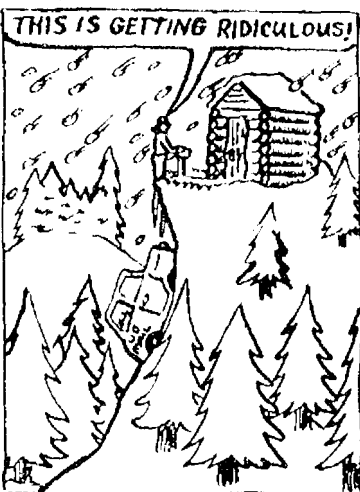

The youngsters, up to what I guess were teenagers, were quite vocal about their feelings. They were full of questions about bears, big foot and the surrounding darkness. At the first stop, I assured them that they had far less to fear in the Tall Timber than on the street in front of their home in the city they came from. I am not at all certain I was successful as the lanterns attracted them like moths and I was guided by two little towheads who seldom strayed from my side or let go of my hands. At the logging camp within the bunkhouse, they relaxed and I am sure they enjoyed the hot cocoa and donuts the leaders had ready for them. They were full of questions about what I was telling them about life in a logging camp, but when the lights went out in the buildings and we were once again dependent on the kerosene, their apprehension returned. Once back to their vehicles, they were, from all appearances, back to normal. It is sad that life has made those youngsters so fearful of the dark, but perhaps it is a lingering feeling passed down from a time when our ancestors built a fire in the mouth of their cave to drive the creeping darkness back and keep the unknown at bay.

RSVP News

Sherry Haag, Dir.

Welcome to this weeks RSVP News. If you are 60 years of age or older you can become a member of RSVP. All you have to do is stop by the RSVP office on Lawndale & fill out a volunteer registration form. No dues to pay, or meetings to attend. Stop in for more information. As a volunteer you will be given the opportunity to contribute your time, experience, knowledge and interest to others in your own community who need you and your commitment.

Projects vary greatly in size with any where from 100 to 5,000 volunteers who contribute an average of four hours a week. RSVP volunteers work without pay or stipends, although some receive reimbursement for transportation or meals. RSVP is a cost-effective program. Volunteers contribute about seven dollars worth of services worth of services for every dollar of program costs.

The 260,000 volunteers

currently involved in RSVP, represents 3% of the estimated Nine Million, Six Hundred Thousand older Americans who would be eligible for the program. A large percentage of those volunteers work toward helping the low-income population meet basic human needs. Income or education level plays no part in eligibility for the program. Volunteers contribute 52 million hours of service a year.

Nation Wide — In Palm Beach County, Florida, eight retired attorneys facilitate the over-taxed court system by assisting the county's Parole and Probation Department. They interview inmates about to be paroled, and then make a recommendation to the judge as to whether or not parole should be granted.

In Michigan, the Retired Senior Volunteer Program in Traverse City is sponsored by Northwestern Michigan College. Volunteers in Traverse City serve at many stations. Volunteers for two years have sorted, collated and stapled countless brochures and hand outs for the Child Care Council. Seniors teach crafts, help in day care centers, answer phones and take messages at the American Red Cross office and help with the schools reading programs.

Locally, RSVP seniors provide service hours for Community Services, Elementary School Reading Program, Mercy Hospital and many more non-profit organizations and agencies.

Presently, volunteers are needed for the Community Service Christmas toy project. We have the patterns for simple wooden pull toys. The wheels are already cut out, we just need persons to cut the body, glue and sand. Help make a small child smile on Christmas.

If any volunteers still have p.j.s, gowns, mittens or hats for the Community Services we've been asked to have them in by December 16th. Please drop them at the office. Thanks to you all!

Don't forget our Holiday Open House on December 18, 1-5 p.m. at the RSVP office, Stop by for some punch &

Dear Whitey,
Congratulations to the voters.
A few thoughts & facts the voters should be aware of now that the election is over. The organizations that successfully made some of the FACTS known to the voters by advertising in newspapers, radio, and distributing literature, signs, posters, etc., are the same persons that finance each and everyone of these winning campaigns. These campaigns are expensive but we feel there are many issues that should be brought out instead of buried as some would like it.

Did you know that in the past campaign the workers who erected "NO" posters had to replace some of them 3 times and put them 10 feet in the air to keep them from being destroyed and that over 1,000 pieces of our printed literature was destroyed before getting to the voters? How would you like to spend your time, money, many hours and effort expressing your opinion (per; the 1st. U.S. Constitutional Amendment) only to have it vandalized and destroyed by persons who oppose you??? We can understand some having opposing views, this is democracy in action but to go so far as some do in this area is irresponsible and uncalled for. The facts should and must be brought out on each issue in an election whereby the listeners and readers; can then interpret for themselves how they should vote if we are to live in a free society. We certainly hope the persons pro and con in any election agree that we ALL have the right of freedom of expression and speech.

Even the persons sitting behind the desks at the polls with their YES buttons on have this right. They just were expressing their opinion in the wrong place a the wrong time and contrary to the election laws. Why didn't the sworn in election officials stop this illegality without concerned citizens having to call election officials in Lansing at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon to stop and correct the situation? Why were the instructions on the absentee ballots in conflict with each other making some ballots VOID because the voters followed instructions and nothing was done about it even when the error was found 3 weeks prior to election? This information list could go on and on and certainly no one is perfect but these errors, misrepresentations, etc., should be brought to the attention of the public no matter how costly or time consuming.

It doesn't really matter whether it's a school, county, city, Township, or whatever kind of election, or meeting. We all need each others opinions and none of us can agree 100% on any subject - yet if we patiently work together. Go to the meetings

- get the information you want, listen and discuss what is happening with someone - do something. If we ALL do our part our dollars will be spent wisely and we will SAVE our tax dollars for the betterment of OUR community. With no involvement or participation we can expect what we get. So please HELP, YOU ARE NEEDED.

In fact EACH and every voter irregardless of what side they are on should contribute time, money, or effort to support and bring out these facts so the public will be informed and able to vote with some knowledge of the issues.

Here in Crawford County I sincerely believe that we have some of the best informed voters in the state and we must keep it that way. We all must help to do our part. So long as we continue to share our thoughts, knowledge and effort we will improve our Community. Do YOUR part PLEASE!

Sincerely,
Don Welsner

Dear Whitey,
When you attended the C.A.R.E. (Concerned About Real Education) Benefit Dinner Monday, Dec. 7th, I'm sure you were as impressed as I was with the students from Grayling High School. Athletes, cheerleaders and members from the Student Council and National Honor Society worked hard setting up, serving, cleaning and cleaning. They were the willing and responsible young people of our community donating their time and talent to raise funds for the school's athletic department and libraries.

As the dining room chairperson I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank them for a job well done.

Dear Students of Crawford-AuSable Schools,
I have spent forty-one of the best years of my life in a classroom (on one or the other side of the desk), and I would like to share with you a thought which I have found to be true over these many years.

In the field of education, you yourself are the only one who will be able to decide whether or not you will acquire a quality education. Your parents, your teachers, your classrooms and all the paraphernalia found in them - helpful as they may be - play only a secondary role in your education. You yourself play the primary role in your education: it is your own abilities and desires, your own intelligence and motivation that place a quality education within your grasp in the Crawford-AuSable Schools.

If you dedicate yourself to the serious and arduous task of acquiring a quality education, you will acquire a quality education and you will experience many rewards: the joy of learning, the satisfaction that accompanies self-improvement, and the knowledge that you are preparing yourself for a significant role in our society.

Is everyone in Crawford County behind you? Of course we are! We are all cheering for and supporting you: after all, you are our future leaders.

With warm regards,
Dr. John L. Kraus, Ph.D.

I KNOW WE SHOULD GO TO THE FUNERAL HOME

BUT, I NEVER KNOW WHAT TO SAY.

The fact is that nothing can be said to express adequately our loss or make the bereaved family feel better. But that doesn't mean that a visit and an expression of sympathy won't be helpful. Bereaved persons tell us that it's not the words that are helpful but that someone cared enough to go to the funeral home and express their sympathy in person. Sometimes just a hug or holding your friend's hand briefly is a good way to say "I care." When a friend loses a loved one go to the funeral home. Express your sympathy and offer your assistance. You'll be appreciated for caring.

AN OPEN LETTER TO MR. RON FRASER, HOLIDAY INN

Dear Ron:

On behalf of hundreds of members of the Crawford-AuSable School area, we wish to thank you for your recent generous act of support toward the betterment of education for our children.

On Monday, December 7, 1981, you completely sponsored a swiss steak dinner, providing all the food, your fine facilities and the use of your competent, professional personnel. The entire proceeds were given equally, at your request, to further the efforts of C.H.I.L.D., (Committee Hoping for Interim Library Dollars) and the Grayling Athletic Fund.

Because of your totally voluntary and selfless act, we were able to serve nearly 600 excellent dinners and realize a profit of $2,700, all of which will be properly channeled into the library and the athletic programs of Crawford-AuSable Schools.

We join you in your earnest wish that this gesture serve as a positive step toward our common goal - that of providing the best possible education for every one of our children.

Again, our sincere thanks!

Sincerely,

CHECK-UP TIME

Periodically my company requires me to have a "physical." My health is too important to them — and to ME — to neglect it.

Nobody requires me to have a "spiritual." The world figures rightly that a person's religious vitality is his own business.

Unfortunately, check-up time for our spiritual health is often some unexpected crisis. We learn the hard way that the soul as well as the body must be strong.

Each week brings opportunity for worshipping God, for deepening our religious insights, for cultivating spiritual strength. What our churches and synagogues provide is vital.
